1982-83 Season Review

Many memorable moments took place during WIBC's 1982-83 season. However, the Congress' 66th year will no doubt be long remembered especially for one: the 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament.

Held in Las Vegas, Nev., the tournament not only shattered all existing bowling tournament entry records, it also ranked as the largest women's sports event ever held. It very nearly rated as the largest sports event bar none.

An incredible 14,430 five-woman teams entered the tournament. That figure far outdistanced the previous WIBC record of 9,688 teams in the 1977 tournament in Milwaukee, Wis.

Showboat Lanes, second largest bowling center in the nation with 106 lanes, hosted the huge event, which opened April 7 and ran through July 1.

When the 83-day event — second longest in WIBC history — finally drew to a close, the staggering total of 75,480 women bowlers had actually participated.

WIBC's public relations department contacted the Guinness Book of World Records when it became apparent the tournament entry had achieved mammoth proportions.

Was it the largest sports event ever held?

Guinness' editors replied the WIBC event was surpassed only by the estimated 80,000 runners in the 1982 Round the Bays run in Auckland, New Zealand. Although the 1983 WIBC had come up short in that category, it was credited with the largest entry in a women's sports event.

That put the tournament

The first of the record 75,480 tournament bowlers took part in a mass ball rolling on opening night.

WIBC officials surveyed "some" of the 17,696 team entries received for 1983. Flora Mitchell, executive secretary-treasurer, Helen Baker, president, and Jan Chase, tournament manager (standing l to r), gathered around tournament staff.

not only atop the world of bowling tournaments, but also in select company among the world's largest sports events.

Mrs. Helen Baker of Cocoa Beach, Fla., WIBC president, voiced WIBC's reaction to the enormity of the 1983 championships. "It goes without saying that we are overwhelmed at the magnitude of almost everything connected with our 1983 tournament," she said.

Indeed, everything associated with the tournament took on huge proportions. The prize fund topped the $1 million mark for the first time, reaching $1,627,815, largest ever for a scheduled bowling tournament. It more than doubled the previous WIBC record, the $769,988 awarded to prize winners in St. Louis, Mo., in 1982.

The prize fund was swelled by an additional $215,678 thanks to a major reallocation of funds. The huge entry resulted in total expense fees collected exceeding the more stable tournament operational costs. Also, high interest rates at the time entry fees were deposited and invested produced additional revenue.

WIBC channeled those monies back into the prize fund. In addition, top prizes in all divisions were revised upward thanks to the large purse.

Other events during the season carried their own significance.

A record delegation attended the 1983 WIBC Annual Meeting in the Las Vegas Convention Center where three women were inducted into the WIBC Hall of Fame. Betty Morris, Lodi, Calif., and Doris Knechtges, Ferndale, Mich., were selected for Superior Performance in the Game of American Tenpins. Mrs. Rae Fisk, Houston, Texas, was inducted posthumously into the Meritorious Service category.

The Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament solidified its reputation as the top competition for high average women bowlers. Held May 10-14, the event boasted an expanded field and an increased prize fund. Also, for the first time in two years, it had a new champion, Aleta Rzepecki Sill of Cocoa, Fla.

For the first time, bowling became part of the Pan-Am Games when it was chosen as a demonstration sport. WIBC selected two women to represent the United States in the competition, and one, Jean Hammond of Laurens, S.C., turned in an outstanding performance, winning four medals.

These and other events made the 1982-83 season one the most significant in WIBC history.

Championship Tournament

Las Vegas had been the site for the WIBC championships once before, in 1973. That year the "phenomenal" total of 9,644 teams entered. The largest previous WIBC event had drawn 6,094 teams in 1967.

Remembering 1973, WIBC officials anticipated a record entry for 1983, but the eventual size could not have been forseen. In all, 17,696 entries were received. WIBC returned 3,266, due mainly to lack of time on the schedule.

New rules governing participation by professionals were also in effect for 1983. Only two pros were allowed to compete on a five-woman team and only one on a two-woman team. Another rule change raised the cutoff average between Divisions I and II from 145 to 150. All the changes were made to help equalize competition.

When the last ball was finally rolled, Telectronic Systems, Inc., had claimed the team championship. An American team sponsored by a company from Manila, The Philippines, Telectronic rolled 2,868.

Virginia Norton of South Gate, Calif., Telectronic's leadoff bowler, earned the all events title as well, giving the righthander two championships. They were the fifth and sixth WIBC titles of her career. Only six women have won more.

Mrs. Norton was clearly the best bowler among the more than 75,000 competitors. She totaled 1,922 in winning the all events for the third time in her career. She bowled 631 in the team event, 630 in doubles and 661 in singles.

Vesma Grinfelds of San Francisco, Calif., led Telectronic with 634. Janine Ditch of San Pedro, Calif., contributed 607. Claudette Santiago, a native of the Philippines who lives half the year in the United States and whose husband, Jose Luis, provided the sponsorship, added 523. Ginny Adams of Norwalk, Calif., bowled 473.

Ohioans Jeanne Maiden of Solon and Sue Robb of Euclid combined for the doubles title rolling 1,312. Their score was three pins short of the tournament record. Mrs. Maiden rolled 706, one of only two 700 series in the 1983 event. Mrs. Robb bowled 606.

Winning the singles crown was Aleta Rzepecki, who later married David Sill and moved from Detroit, Mich., to Cocoa, Fla. Aleta authored the tournament's top three-gamer, 726, in winning the individual title. She rolled games of 235, 248 and 243.

Aleta narrowly missed becoming the first woman in 54 years to successfully defend the all events title. Mrs. Norton edged the lefthander by one pin, firing a strike on her last ball. Aleta had won the 1982 all events title with 1,905.

Teletronic Systems, Inc., won the 1983 team title. Members were (l to r) Claudette Santiago, Ginny Adams, Virginia Norton, Janine Ditch and Vesma Grinfelds. The 1983 doubles champions were Jeanne Maiden (l) and Sue Robb.

Aleta Rzepecki Sill powered her way to victory in the Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament. She also won the WIBC singles title

Queens Tournament

Determined bowling by Aleta Rzepecki Sill earned the 20-year-old lefthander the most prestigious title and richest prize in women's bowling when she captured the 1983 Avon/WIBC Queens Tournament.

Aleta defeated three opponents in the televised stepladder finals enroute to claiming the $25,000 first place prize. An additional $1,000 for 10 wins in match play gave her the richest individual prize check ever awarded in women's tournament competition. She ended Katsuko Sugimoto's two-year reign as Queens champion.

Avon sponsorship for the fourth consecutive year boosted the total prize fund to $100,000, compared to $80,000 the year before. The tournament was the richest event of its kind in women's bowling.

With the increased prize fund went an expanded field as a record 481 bowlers took part, 80 more than in the past. Bowlers from The Netherlands, Great Britain, Australia and Venezuela as well as four military representatives competed for the first time.

Aleta qualified third in the five-player stepladder finals and had to await the outcome of the first match before beginning her march to the title. Patty Costello of Scranton, Pa., the qualifying leader, defeated Debbie Rainone of Euclid, Ohio, in that one 233-182.

In the second match, Aleta stopped Patty 246-215 and moved on to face Virginia Norton, the No. 2 qualifier.

Although the score was closer, Virginia was never in the match, and Aleta prevailed 225-210.

Aleta faced undefeated Dana Miller of Albuquerque, N.M., in the title match, which was a replay of the U.S. Open title match a month earlier. Dana had come out on top in that one 247-200.

This time Aleta took the measure of her 26-year-old opponent 214-188. Dana collected $14,750, including bonus money, as runner-up.

The remaining top eight Queens finalists and their total earnings were: Mrs. Norton, third, $8,500; Miss Costello, fourth, $6,000; Mrs. Rainone, fifth, $4,500; Sharon Powers, Wheat Ridge, Colo., sixth, $3,500; Cindy Mason, Hayward, Calif., seventh, $2,700; and Lorrie Nichols, Island Lake, Ill., eighth, $1,900.

Miss Sugimoto, defending champion from Osaka City, Japan, tied for 17th in her bid to become the first woman to win the Queens title three consecutive years. She won three of five matches.

The Queens finals were taped by SportsVision of Chicago, Ill., for the Public Broadcasting Service, which aired the show later in the year as part of its "Sports America" segment.

WIBC Hall of Fame inductees for 1983 were: clockwise from top, Betty Morris, Doris Knechtges and Rae Fisk.

Annual Meeting

Going hand-in-hand with the record tournament entry was the record number of delegates — 3,772 — who attended the 66th WIBC Annual Meeting April 25-27. The total surpassed the 3,479 delegates at the 1979 convention in Tucson, Ariz.

During the three-day session in the Las Vegas Convention Center, the delegates adopted 13 proposed amendments to the WIBC Bylaws and Rules and to bylaws of local and state associations. Five proposed amendments were rejected. Deliberation on the proposed legislation took only 35 minutes.

Among the adopted legislation was a section formalizing minimum requirements for association average yearbooks. Also adopted was an amendment clarifying procedures for a player to "bowl out." Rejected legislation included another effort to reduce the size of the delegation.

Laura Dulisse of Blauvelt, N.Y., received the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award. The 17-year-old, who said she will attend Temple University, carries a 210 average.

Induction of the three new Hall of Fame members brought to 80 the number of women enshrined in the hall.

Mrs. Morris won five WIBC titles between 1974 and 1980. She was voted Woman Bowler of the Decade for the 1970s, twice being named Woman Bowler of the Year. Betty also has won 18 professional titles and at 34 years of age was the third youngest inductee into the hall.

Miss Knechtges won four WIBC titles, three of those in one year, 1953. She is one of only 12 women to average better than 190 on WIBC's lifetime tournament average list. She was named Detroit Sportswoman of the Year and Queen of Detroit Bowlers in both 1953 and 1954.

The late Mrs. Fisk was appointed to the WIBC Board of Directors in 1961. In 1967 she was appointed seventh vice president. Eventually, in 1981, she was elected second vice president. Rae served on many WIBC committees. She was a National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum director and secretary of the Young American Bowling Alliance. Her daughters, Beth Cassels and Lindy Bingham of Houston, accepted the award.

Prior to balloting for officers and directors, Mrs. Billie O'Connor of Chehalis, Wash., fourth vice president, was elected a Member Emeritus. She had announced earlier that she would not be a candidate for re-election.

Mrs. Joyce Deitch of Las Vegas, sixth vice president, was elected to succeed Mrs. O'Connor. Two other officers were re-elected: Mrs. Agnes Duffy of Richmond, Calif., first vice president; and Mrs. Elaine Hagin, Castro Valley, Calif., seventh vice president.

Six incumbent directors were returned to office: Miss Jo Smith, Devils Lake, N.D.; Mrs. Clara Morton, Powell, Tenn.; Mrs. Irene Kreidler, Oyster Bay, N.Y.; Mrs. Margaret Howell, Rome, Ga.; Mrs. Eleanor Meeks, Fort Benton, Mont., and Mrs. Sylvia Broyles, San Antonio, Texas.

Following the Annual Meeting, Mrs. Baker appointed Mrs. Hagin to fill the vacant office of sixth vice president. She then appointed Mrs. Lavonne Hodgson, Salina, Kan., director, to fill Mrs. Hagin's post and appointed Mrs. Beverly McLendon of Houston, Texas, as director No. 11, filling Mrs. Hodgson's former post.

A record delegation gathered in the Las Vegas Convention Center to attend proceedings at the WIBC Annual Meeting.

Two new award programs were announced during the Annual Meeting. One, the "Spotlight Award," will recognize outstanding local and state associations. The other, the Bowling Booster Emblem, will be an award which associations can use to recognize members for accomplishments both on and off the lanes.

Hartford, Conn., was selected overwhelmingly by the delegates as the site for the 1987 WIBC Championship Tournament and Annual Meeting, winning over Grand Rapids, Mich., and Tucson, Ariz.

Collegiate Events

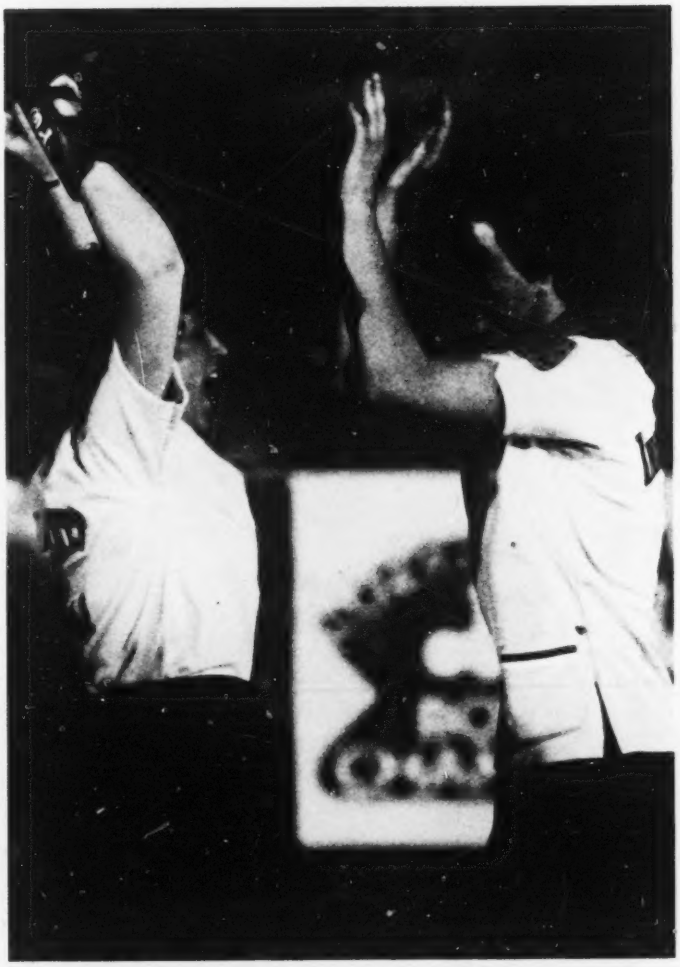
Lori Wisnowski of Temple University won the all events title in the Women's National Intercollegiate Championships April 11 on the WIBC tournament lanes in Las Vegas.

The 20-year-old junior majoring in accounting rolled 1735, finishing 60 pins ahead of Becky Lavrusky of Robert Morris College. Lori bowled 542 in doubles, 604 in singles and 589 in the special all events.

She placed third in both doubles and singles in the Association of College Unions-International finals, which is sponsored by WIBC and the Brunswick Corporation.

Jan Speers of Linn-Benton Community College in Albany, Ore., rolled a record 668 to win singles. Her series bettered the 656 by Sandi Tice of Erie (N.Y.) Community College. Jan's games were 201, 223 and 244.

Mary Hardman of Wichita State combined with Debbie Horn of Oklahoma State to win doubles with 1,100, nine pins ahead of the second place team.



Two Indiana State University bowlers "high fived" at the National Collegiate Bowling Championships.

Top college teams faced off in the National Collegiate Bowling Championships at Fair Lanes of St. Louis in St. Louis, Mo., May 4-7.

West Texas State won the women's title defeating Indiana State University 182-175 in the championship match. West Texas State was the top seeded team in the three-team stepladder finals. Indiana State defeated 1982 finalist California State-Fresno 185-176 to gain the title match.

versity 233-179 to win the men's title. Twenty-four teams competed in the event, 12 men's and 12 women's.

Senior Tournament

The second annual WIBC National Senior Tournament was held May 13-14 in Niagara Falls, N.Y., with a field more than twice the size of the inaugural event in Baltimore, Md., the year before.

Once again, the tournament was held in conjunction with the American Bowling Congress National Senior Tournament. The lanes were the same used for the 1983 ABC Tournament in the Niagara Falls International Convention Center.

A total of 98 women from 35 states and one Canadian province competed in the four age groups: Class A, 70 years and over; Class B, 65-69; Class C, 60-64; and Class D, 55-59. Forty-three women had bowled in the first senior event in 1982.

Title winners were: Betty Bushee, Bennington, Vt., in Class A; Theda Ryan, Richland Center, Wis., in Class B; Loree Taylor, Lexington, Texas, in Class C; and Francis Wallis, Imlay City, Mich., in Class D. Each received a $500 prize and a plaque.

Mrs. Taylor rolled 2002 including handicap and bonus pins for match play wins. Her total was the highest for both the WIBC and ABC events. Mrs. Bushee set a new senior record in the qualifying round with a 492 high scratch series.

Tournament participants qualified for the event through senior tournaments in their home states. In Niagara Falls they bowled two three-game qualifying blocks with the top four in each division advancing for three more games in match play.

Pan-Am Games

Bowling made a successful debut as a demonstration sport in the 9th Pan-American Games in Caracas, Venezuela, August 6-13, and the performance of the United States team was impressive.

The U.S. team won the overall championship awarded to the country with the most points. The U.S. won seven medals, Puerto Rico and Venezuela five each.

Jean Hammond of Laurens, S.C., was the star, winning four medals, two golds and two silvers. The retired cosmotologist earned the overall championship and joined with teammate Mary Lou Vining of Inver Grove Heights, Minn., to win women's doubles.

The two women then combined with Rod Toft of Lake Elmo, Minn., and Rich Wonders of Racine, Wis., for second in the mixed foursome. Mrs. Hammond also won a silver medal for second in women's singles.

In the women's title match, Jean dueled another WIBC member, Ashie Gonzales of Puerto Rico. Ashie had finished first in the match round with Jean second. The South Carolina righthander outscored Ashie 346-302 in the first two games, forcing a third and deciding game. In that match, Jean won again 213-170.

In men's competition, Wonders won a silver medal in the men's overall. He won the bronze for third in singles as well. Wonders and Toft also placed second in men's doubles.

Twenty-one women and 23 men representing 12 countries competed in the bowling event, which was one of two demonstration sports selected for the Pan-Am Games. The other, tennis, was dropped when it was made a part of the regular games.

The U.S. team was co-sponsored by WIBC and the American Bowling Congress. Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. Vining were selected as the top nonprofessionals in all events at the 1982 and 1981 WIBC Championship Tournaments, respectively.

Team Trials

Six top nonprofessionals earned spots on the United States team headed for Caracas, Venezuela, when they topped the 24-bowler women's field at the 7th U.S. Team Trials.

The six women and a six-man team were to represent the U.S. in Caracas at the 10th World Bowling Championships of the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs October 19-29.

WIBC and the American Bowling Congress conducted the trials July 14-16 in Milwaukee, Wis. Competing were the top 10 nonprofessional all events finishers from the 1982 and 1983 WIBC tournaments and two collegiate champions from each year. A similar field from ABC Tournament and collegiate play competed for spots on the men's team.

Cathy Almeida of New Bedford, Mass., finished as No. 1 qualifier for the women's team. She compiled a 13-3 won-lost record in match play and averaged 196 over the 34 games, including 18 games of qualifying.

Also making the team were: Janine Ditch, San Pedro, Calif.; Yvonne Dowland, Artesia, Calif.; Marion Brisk, Bethpage, N.Y.: Dixie Kirk, Belvidere, Ill.; and Mary Mohacsi, Livonia, Mich.

Mrs. Mohacsi was the only veteran of FIQ competition. The righthander won three gold medals, one silver and one bronze in two FIQ American Zone tournaments, 1974 and 1981. The 1983 FIQ event would be her first world competition.

Carol Miller of Waukesha, Wis., was selected to coach the U.S. women in FIQ play for the fourth time. Teams under her guidance scored a gold medal sweep in the 1977 FIQ American Zone event, won two gold medals in the 1979 FIQ World Tournament and four gold medals in the 1981 American Zone event.

Qualifying for the men's team were: Rod Toft, Lake Elmo, Minn.; Darold Meisel, Muskego, Wis.; Rod McLean, Baltimore, Md.; Gordon Vadakin, Wichita, Kan.; Rich Wonders, Racine, Wis.; and Tony Cariello, Chicago, Ill.

Hall of Fame

with the opening tentatively scheduled for March, 1984.

Contributions also continued coming in with sizeable donations forthcoming from several sources.

At the WIBC Annual Meeting, Al Hoff, general manager of Showboat Lanes, site of the 1983 WIBC tournament, presented a check for $10,000, part of a $50,000 pledge by Showboat, Inc., of which Joseph Kelley is president and chairman of the board.

Michael Sauro, concessionaire at the WIBC tournament, pledged another $39,000 to the $11,000 already contributed by his family.

Dudley Peebles, WIBC's official tournament photographer, pledged $25,000 to the museum fund as did Wilson Trophy Co. of St. Louis.

Funding for the museum was enriched for the second year by the Budweiser/Bud Light Hall of Fame Tournament held in St. Louis, Mo. WIBC member Sandi Simmons of Overland Park, Kan., paired with Nelson (Bo) Burton, Jr., of St Louis to win the $10,000 first place prize.

As in the first tournament, the finals of the event teamed 10 Hall of Fame members, five WIBC and five ABC, with 10 regional champions, five women and five men, from five Anheuser-Busch marketing areas.

WIBC Hall of Fame members in the field were: LaVerne Carter, Las Vegas, Nev.; Helen Duval, Berkeley, Calif.; Marion Ladewig, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judy Soutar, Leawood, Kan.; and Donna Zimmerman, Huntington Beach, Calif.

Sandi Simmons and Bo Burton shared "big bucks" after winning the Hall of Fame Tournament

League bowlers in more than 3,000 bowling centers participated, using their league scores in a most-pins-over-average competition. Part of the $1 entry fee was donated to the museum, the rest went to an in-center prize fund.

Membership

WIBC's final membership count for the season reached 3,947,229, seventh highest on record. But for the first time in six years the total dipped below the four million mark.

The final figure was 117,632 fewer than during the 1981-82 season, representing a 2.74 percent decrease.

Leagues totaled 160,269, also the seventh highest on record, but 3,370 less than the previous season. The decrease was 1.78 percent.

Michigan led all WIBC state associations in membership for the third consecutive season with 331,402. New York ranked second with 321,946 and Ohio was third with 319,186.

California topped all states in number of leagues with 16,815. The perennial leader in this category easily topped second place New York, which had 12,133. Ohio again was third with 11,542.

Florida was the only top 10 state to register gains with 636 more members and 58 more leagues.

Detroit, Mich., outdistanced all other local associations in both membership and leagues. The Motor City reported a membership of 112,986 bowling in 3,491 leagues. Chicago was second in both categories with 74,261 members and 2,554 leagues. Milwaukee, Wis., was third with 46,353 and 2,044.

High Scores

Performances on the lanes by WIBC members produced a record number of 300 games, a new individual 300-game career mark, and a new all-time high league average.

A total of 108 perfect games were bowled by 102 women. That topped the old record of 102 300s rolled the previous season.

Two women accounted for three 300 games each, Jeanne Maiden of Solon, Ohio, and Judith Seckel of Florissant, Mo. They were the third and fourth WIBC members to roll three perfect games in one season.

For Mrs. Maiden, the three 300s gave her a career total of eight, most by a WIBC member. The 1983 WIBC doubles champion has bowled all of her perfect games in the past four seasons.

Mrs. Seckel's 300 games were the first of her career, and they immediately put her in select company. With her third 300, she became only the 20th woman in WIBC history to bowl more than two.

Bowling a pair of perfect games each during the season were Linda Kelly of Union, Ohio, and Debbie Timberlake of Blue Springs, Mo. Linda's 300s were the second and third of her career.

The new high average mark was set not by one, but two women. Patty Ann of Springfield, Ill., and Paulette Karwoski of Taylor, Pa., both posted 228 averages.

Bowling in the Strike N Spare East Singles league, Patty topped the WIBC record 227 average she set during the 1979-80 season while living in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Paulette matched Patty's average bowling in the Parkettes League at Hyde Park Lanes in Scranton, Pa.

R & J Decorating of Cleveland, Ohio, rolled the season's high five-woman team three-game score, 3,305, in the Stardust Classic All Stars league at Stardust Lanes. The score ranks fourth on WIBC's all-time records.

Sillia's Pro Shop, also of Cleveland, rolled the high five-woman team game, an 1,190. The score tied as fifth best on the all-time records.

Twelve 800 series were bowled by WIBC members during the season with Anne Marie Pike of Cypress, Calif., leading the way with 836.

Miss Pike received WIBC awards for two high games in 1982-83, a 300 and a 279. Both games came during her big series, along with a 257, on July 4 in the Houston Open of the Ladies Professional Bowlers Tour at Stadium Bowl in Houston, Texas. The score ties as third highest on WIBC records for tournament play and fourth highest overall.

Other WIBC members bowling 800s were: Linda Felt, Wilmington, Del., and Debbine Rainone, Highland Heights, Ohio, 824 each; Carolyn Trump, Akron, Ohio, 821; Margaret Brown, Abilene, Texas, 818; Mary Wright, Los Angeles, Calif., 810; Nikki Gianulias, Vallejo, Calif., and Rose Kotnik, Brook Park, Ohio, 806 each; Nanci Caldwell, Tulsa, Okla., Terry Christensen, Onawa, Iowa, and Shirley Green, Porterville, Calif., 802 each; and Lovene Rinn, Barberton, Ohio, 801.

Anne Marie Pike rolled the season's high three-game series, 836.

The WIBC awards program recognized more than 98,000 women during the season for special bowling achievements. Award categories and the number of awards presented during 1982-83 were as follows:

Triple Score	37,685
100 Pins Over Average	28,673
All Spare	25,644
Big Four Split	3,345
Dutch 200 Game	1,553
7-10 Split	1,413

President's Report

Las Vegas, Nev.
April 27, 1983

To the Board of Directors and delegates:

Welcome to Las Vegas, Nev., and the 66th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress. Back in 1830, the big springs and valleys of this area of Nevada were popular camping spots on the circuitous desert route of trading caravans. Now it is a popular stopping place for caravans of convention goers who find it delightful for a little "R & R" — rest and relaxation.

WIBC members can be counted among those convention caravans. They liked it so well that when they were here is 1973, they established a record with 9,644 teams participating in our WIBC Championship Tournament. That record was later broken in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1977, with 9,688 teams. But now Las Vegas has done it again! . . . a new record entry number of 14,430 teams in our 1983 tournament and that is almost certain to stand for many, many years.

When we were here in 1973, there were 2,424 delegates from our local associations and 51 from state and provincial associations registered for our annual meeting. The record registration of 3,479 was set in 1979, in Tucson, Ariz. The final count of delegates for 1983 is 3,764, including 52 state and provincial delegates for a new record.

Since last year in St. Louis, Mo., birthplace of WIBC, many things have happened in our bowling world, but perhaps the most important was the Young American Bowling Alliance Birth Day on August 1, 1982. YABA is rapidly growing into a healthy organization, in spite of all the usual "growing pains" of a new entity.

We thank all of you, and the many more like you not in attendance at our annual meeting: for your willingness to put aside any misgivings you might have had about the program; for your hard work in getting ready for the new baby; for the support you have given and will continue to give to this fledgling organization.

With reference to our young bowlers, we thank you for all those letters you wrote to your congressman asking them to get a resolution adopted declaring the week the Coca Cola National Junior Bowling Championship tournament was in Washington, D.C., last July as National Junior Bowling Championship Week. There were enough senators agreeable to sponsoring the resolution but we fell short on the number of representatives. But, I venture to say that there are now quite a few congressmen in this country who are aware of our game of bowling, the number of young participants and their voting parents as well as the zeal of the adults in trying to get recognition for the game of bowling.

At the last annual meeting you were asked to send clippings about bowling to the WIBC office. And, gosh, did we get clippings! We knew we could count on you and we thank you for the great response. We will be receiving a report from the National Bowling Council, when they have finished collating these clippings, on what the collected material shows us about the amount and kind of publicity our game receives and perhaps some suggestions on how to get more of it.

And speaking of publicity, you ladies do a pretty good job of writing to sponsors, editors, writers, etc., telling them how much you appreciate their contribution to bowling. However, I think we could and should do a lot better. It seems that we are always quick to put a complaint in writing but we seldom are as fast with a complimentary letter or a thank you.

How about putting the following on your list of things to do. After your next association tournament, write a thank you letter to the host proprietor and his staff for their assistance and cooperation. If some of your scores or information furnished by your publicity chairman were used in the local paper or neighborhood paper, write a thank you letter. If gifts were donated for special events, write a thank you letter. If you had a sponsor for a tournament or even for your league team, write a thank you letter.

In other words, show your appreciation for their cooperation, consideration and support. Remember how good a thank you makes you feel.

WIBC is very proud that for the fourth consecutive year, Avon is sponsoring the WIBC Avon/Queens Tournament. As a result of their sponsorship, the tournament will have the largest starting field in its history with 481 participants. WIBC is very appreciative of Avon's sponsorship of the Queens Tournament and thanks them for their continued interest and support.

While the entry is up to record levels in both our WIBC Championship Tournament and the Avon/Queens Tournament here in Las Vegas, unfortunately our membership at the close of the 1981-82 season showed a decline of 1.15%. However, it is possible that this decrease in membership might have been a great deal worse if so many of you had not responded to our call for help.

As I told you last year, we in Greendale can give you all sorts of suggestions on how to encourage bowlers to join WIBC but only you at the local level are in a position to actually bring in new members. We urge you to continue your membership drives alone or in cooperation with the proprietors and WIBC will do its best to continue giving the kind of service that is our big selling point for membership. We will also continue to look for ways to improve that service.

While you are getting the women to bowl in our WIBC leagues, get their daughters and yours interested in becoming active in YABA. Presently the boys outnumber the girls in that organization.

The matter of unrealistic high scores continues to be a problem but all the integers of bowling are working together on possible solutions, ranging from new lane products and testing equipment to teach proper lane inspection procedure to all, both male and female.

We must continue to get our point across to those who are involved with putting down lane conditions. We want only what we earn. Otherwise we can take no pride in the results. What we need individually is a refinement of our skills, a renewal of our enjoyment of the game, a re-affirmation that we earned our scores and awards, so we can reinforce our pride in the game of American Tenpins. We thank you and all the others in the industry who are working toward these goals and ask for continued cooperation until we actually achieve them.

In reading many bowling publications, reports of meetings, etc., over this past year I have found that many of you not only have carried out individually my request for the use of the three "c's" — communication, consideration and cooperation — but that you have in turn urged others to do so. Many of you have also initiated programs designed to bring in new bowlers, have continued old programs which have been successful or developed new ones to raise money for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

I thank you for all your efforts in support of our ideas and programs for the benefit of bowling and ask that you continue along those paths of communication, consideration and cooperation with the other integers as well as with your own co-workers and with WIBC.

Ralph Waldo Emerson says: "There is no limit to what can be accomplished if it doesn't matter who gets the credit."

All through this report I have thanked you for the work that you have done and that I know you will continue to do. Now I want to thank the members of the WIBC Board of Directors for their communication, consideration and cooperation, as well as our hardworking Executive Secretary Flora Mitchell, her assistant Nancy Tatum and all of the dedicated staff we are fortunate enough to have at WIBC headquarters.

Executive Secretary's Report

Las Vegas, Nev.
April 25, 1983

To the Board of Directors and delegates:

If Nevada is nicknamed "The Silver State," then Las Vegas must be the "Silver City." Las Vegas is rich in both its colorful past as the home of the Comstock Lode and its even more colorful present as an entertainment capital of the world. Las Vegas is a patchwork of the old and the new — weaving contrast between sagebrush and slot machines, ghost towns and star-studded casinos. It is an exciting, active city and a most appropriate place for the 66th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress. I extend an enthusiastic welcome to all of you attending today's session.

All this excitement is contagious, and I hope you are as thilled as I am about the present as well as the future of WIBC. The future is filled with challenges which every growing organization must meet. And those challenges are what I want to talk to you about today.

Last year in St. Louis, Mo., the Executive Secretary's Report contained the statement, "We can maintain 4 million members! But it will take us all doing our part." We still believe this statement even though currently our membership is running below the membership figure of last season. As of February 28, 1983, we have 3,761,932 members as compared to 3,841,325 in 1982. There are 129,248 leagues which represents a decrease of 1.23 percent.

To help us all do our part, we will be announcing during this meeting, some new programs and revisions to present ones.

First, almost all of the WIBC emblem awards will have a new look in the 1983-84 season.

The awards review committee appointed by President Baker in the spring of 1982 reviewed the entire WIBC awards program and recommended new designs and new colors for all emblem awards. The only exception will be in the senior awards program which is relatively new and has an inventory that will carry us through the 1983-84 season. There will be some new colors for the senior awards starting with the 1984-85 season.

Due to the request of many of our members, we are also pleased to announce that the 1983-84 league high series award will be an enamel pin instead of an emblem.

Because of the popularity of tournament participation among the largest growing segment of the bowling population, WIBC is making available, on a purchase basis, emblems for the champions in local and state association tournaments for seniors. Emblems and class chevrons for doubles, singles and all events may be purchased for a nominal cost. Order forms will be sent to the tournament manager upon receipt of a tournament sanction application for an association's senior championship tournament to be conducted in the 1983-84 season. The champions of your senior tournament will enjoy displaying these new and colorful emblems.

After a one-year vacation, we are pleased to announce that Leadership Training Seminar III will again be "on the road" this summer. The new version of the popular LTS series presents material which has not been covered before, and which we hope will meet the needs of our associations: Promotion, Public Relations, and Planning and Conducting Association Meetings and Tournaments. Of course, a segment will again be devoted to rules.

Dates and places for the 1983 series of Leadership Training Seminars are included in your Officer and Committee Report Book. Please plan to attend one near you.

In our continuing effort to make the work of the league secretary as uncomplicated as possible, ABC and WIBC have produced a joint version of the Bowling Average Calculator. The only difference in the two calculators previously published was the identifying information, the logo and a brief history of the organization. Combining the information into a single publication gives us the opportunity to effect some savings on paper and printing, since the larger quantity allows us to take advantage of price breaks. We hope that you will like the new look.

The newly designed local association handbook and tournament manual was mailed to association presidents and secretaries at the beginning of the 1982-83 season. Response has been good. So good in fact it was necessary to monitor the orders to assure all associations their officers would receive copies. In some instances it was necessary to reduce the quantity ordered, as some associations apparently thought it so good they wanted extra copies on hand. Revisions will be made as necessary and the manual will again be sent to association presidents and secretaries at the beginning of the 1983-84 season.

We are asking the support of all local association secretaries in making sure that for the 1983-84 season, all sanction applications submitted bear the revision date of September, 1982. In an effort to speed up the processing of league sanction applications, a totally new format has been developed for the form. It is imperative that you destroy all league sanction applications bearing a date prior to September, 1982. If you have a quantity of league service kits on your shelves, please pull the sanction applications and destroy them. Be sure that the supplies you distribute to your league secretaries are current. Let the league secretaries know that the current form is dated September, 1982, and if they have old copies, urge them to get rid of them. Your cooperation in this undertaking will be greatly appreciated.

The league officers workbook will be revised for the 1983-84 season and will be available after June 15, 1983. We would like to ask that you be judicious in ordering this helpful item for your league secretaries. It was not the intent that this material be given to all league officers. The workbook was designed to be used by the secretary of the league, with the president using the book for information on her duties.

If the league would like to make any of the information available to other officers or committee chairmen, they should feel free to photocopy whatever section they believe they need and not order additional copies. We want those leagues which need workbooks to have them, but we also must be aware of the cost factor involved. We know that you will understand our position.

Modern Satellite Network, a division of Modern Talking Picture Services which distributes WIBC films, will program three WIBC productions for satellite transmission on a quarterly basis in 1983. They will be featured in a segment entitled "Modern Life," which is aimed at a women's audience.

The films to be beamed are "Rolling Along," "Competing and Winning," and "Going to a Party." Direct broadcasts via satellite reaches millions of viewers immediately, exposing more women to bowling than ever before.

Viewers should check their local listings of cable network broadcasts for stations and times "Modern Life" is scheduled.

The Woman Bowler magazine has an entirely new look introduced in September, 1982. The magazine continues to report the important happenings in women's bowling and WIBC activities.

Cover stories have included The Woman Bowler magazine All-American team; a Helen Duval feature; Bowling with the Champs; WIBC Hall of Fame inductees; and a feature on bowling for the handicapped.

The 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament and related activities, plus the NBHF/M have received continued support and coverage in the magazine.

There also will be a new look in certain areas at Bowling Headquarters. Your next visit will see relocation of some of WIBC's and ABC's departments to the space formerly occupied by the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum. Young American Bowling Alliance will have a new home in this area.

The necessary remodeling started in February and is scheduled for completion by August 1. However, the work is progressing with good speed and the move-in date could be earlier.

The 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament rightfully belongs in the "Guinness Book of World Records." Las Vegas has always been a tremendous drawing attraction for the Championship Tournament and we were all aware that the 1983 tournament would probably break all existing records for tournament participation. It was publicized that bowlers should submit their entries early; however, we were not prepared for the tremendous avalanche of entries that was received in the office during the first three weeks after forms had been distributed

By September 20 the entry total had exceeded 15,000 which surpassed the number of teams that could be accommodated in the 83-day schedule. In late August the closing date for the tournament had been extended a second and final time to July 1. Further extensions of the tournament were prevented by uncancellable events previously scheduled at Showboat Lanes. We continued to accept entries for the event but checks or money orders for payment of entry fees were not deposited. The entries were processed on a first come, first serve basis until the schedule was filled.

The Championship Tournament department was running a second shift in order to schedule and process the entries as fast as possible. Teamwork became the name of the game, as all departments pitched in to assist the Championship Tournament department. As you know, the major portion of the tournament processing is on computer and whenever a computer terminal was freed up from a department's routine duties you would find Championship Tournament entry forms being processed.

The final entry figures showed 14,430 five-woman teams entered, compared to the previous record of 9,688 in 1977 in Milwaukee, Wis. Over 3,000 entries were returned. The entry figures reflect 35,882 doubles, 71,764 singles and 68,686 optional all events entries. Thus, more than 73,000 women will bowl in the 83-day event across the 106 lanes at Showboat.

The volume of entries resulted in the total expense fees exceeding the more constant expenses of tournament operation. In addition, high interest rates at the time entry fees were deposited and invested produced extra revenue.

As a result, the WIBC Board of Directors approved a reallocation from the expense fee to the prize fund of $1 per bowler per event in the team, doubles and singles. This reallocation amounted to $215,678 being added to the prize fund, for a total of $1,617,878 — surpassing any payoff for a scheduled bowling event in bowling history.

The prize fund distribution will be affected not only by the volume of entries but also by the change in divisions that was effective with the 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament. The realignment was small, changing the top average in Divison II singles and all events from 145 to 150; the top average in Division II doubles from 290 to 300; and team from 725 to 750. There were, of course, corresponding average changes at the bottom of Divison I.

While 1983 may not be a typical year, the division changes already are helping to more evenly distribute the entries between Divisions I and II. For example, in 1982, over 70 percent of the teams entered were in Divison I and only 23.5 percent were in Division II. This year, 55.3 percent of the teams are in Division I and Division II claims 39 percent of the total. Similar changes have occurred in the other events.

When the Queens entrants take to the lanes they will be competing for a $100,000 prize fund. First prize will be $25,000, largest ever offered for a women's match game event.

Katsuko Sugimoto of Tokyo, Japan, two-time champion, will be on hand to defend her title and attempt to be the first entrant to win an unprecedented third title in as many years.

The 1984 WIBC Championship Tournament will be held in Niagara Falls, N.Y., for the first time. The Annual Meeting will be held April 30, May 1 and 2, and the Queens Tournament will be held May 15 through 19. Entry forms for the 1984 tournament will be mailed June 17, to all captains of teams entered in the Las Vegas tournament, to individuals (upon request), and to local and state association secretaries. Entry closing date will be January 6, 1984, unless the schedule is filled sooner.

The WIBC Championship Tournament will open April 4, 1985, in Toledo, Ohio. The Annual Meeting dates are April 22, 23 and 24.

We suggest you keep these dates in mind when planning your local and state activities for the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons.

Forty-seven WIBC members are eligible to receive plaques for participating in their 25th WIBC Championship Tournament when they make their appearances here in Las Vegas. All told, 394 members are eligible fo awards in this year's events.

Myrtle Schulte of St. Louis, Mo., now 90 years old, has bowled in 54 tournaments and is entered again this year, although her health has not been the best at this writing. Also entered again is Mary Covell of Chicago. It will be her 52nd appearance.

These accomplishments illustrate the growth of our organization within the past 12 months and are the prelude to the challenges that lie ahead. I would like to thank Helen Baker, for her guidance as president. I also wish to thank the WIBC Board of Directors and the staff for their assistance. And I want to express my appreciation to the delegates here today, for playing a key role in the continued growth of our organization.

The challenges that arise in the years to come can only be met by the strong, committed support that you, the dedicated and active members of WIBC, give us.

Flora E. Mitchell
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

The expansive Las Vegas Convention Center was the site for the three-day WIBC Annual Meeting. Deliberations took place in the rotunda April 25-27.

Special Reports

All reports in this section were presented April 26 and 27 to the Board of Directors and delegates assembled at the 66th Annual Meeting of the Women's International Bowling Congress in Las Vegas, Nev.

LEGAL

In this day and age we are fortunate to be given warnings in so many different ways. They can range from storm warnings issued by the weather bureau to the warning lights that flash in our automobiles. In the latter case, these lights are an indication of trouble and one should be quick to investigate before a major problem arises.

Too bad the president of a league that suffered a loss over $2,000 didn't heed the following warning signals:

The president knew the treasurer had had previous experience and the treasurer told her she would "take care of everything." The president never signed any papers for a bank account. The president was advised that the league had not been sanctioned two months after the season started. The president asked to see the bank book, but the treasurer always had an excuse for not bringing it.

Despite these red flags thrown in her path, the president was very surprised the night of the banquet when the treasurer did not show up with the prize money and the trophies. The following morning she was disturbed to learn that no money had ever been deposited in the bank. And she and the members were very dismayed to learn that the bonding coverage became effective when the sanction application reached the association so the loss was not fully covered. To make matters worse there was a 50% penalty on the amount that was covered.

During the past season, the greatest increase in the number of cases reviewed by the legal committee came in the area of misuse of funds. As leaders of your association, you can help cut down on the number of these cases if you will stress in your workshops the points above as well as the following:

Presidents should not believe the statement, "You don't have to do anything."

Presidents should be wary when there is a problem and the treasurer reports that the bank has made an error.

If a league has 40 members who pay $5 a week and the lineage is $3.50, then each week the treasurer should be depositing $60 to the bank account. Deposits which are continually less than the correct amount will lead to a shortage.

Many treasurers have been tempted to misuse funds because the president never checked with the bank. In many instances the treasurer fully intended to replace the money before the payoff, but found herself unable to do so.

An increase has also been noted in cases involving secretaries who do not file their final average sheets. The association offers a service to its members when it verifies their averages. A secretary who does not submit these averages is depriving the member of her right to have her average on file and also places herself in jeopardy of suspension. Associations are urged to issue several reminders to use personal contact to obtain these averages.

Nonpayment of league fees continues to provide the greatest number of cases that the committee reviews. Here again you can help by counseling with your league officers at workshops.

Urge leagues to adopt realistic rules, and to be sure each member is aware of the rules on resignation and arrearage.

For those who join the league after the start of the season, a special effort should be made to acquaint them with the rules.

Enforce rules on arrearage. Don't let the amount owed build up. Take action right away.

Make league officers aware that when a bowler gives a two week notice, it is two calendar weeks.

If a bowler gives her notice prior to bowling, then that week is considered part of her notice. If given after bowling, the notice begins with the following week.

If the procedures in rule 114c are not strictly adhered to, the file will not be accepted by WIBC. The requirement for strict adherence to this rule is a safeguard to the rights of the league and the member.

During the 1981-82 season, the legal committee finalized 1,516 cases involving membership rights and 116 applications for reinstatement. 1,042 of these cases were for nonpayment of league fees, 155 dealt with misuse of funds (85 were bond related cases), 75 cases concerned secretaries who did not submit final averages and 244 were for miscellaneous offenses.

Following is a summary of the action taken by the committee:

1,204 Membership suspended indefinitely with office holding privileges withheld in 160. In two instances the restriction from being a team captin was also imposed.

135 Barred from holding office.

115 Letter of reprimand/ letter of counsel.

62 Not guilty, case closed.

95 Reinstatements approved with office holding privileges withheld in 27.

2 Office holding privileges restored.

13 Reinstatement of membership denied.

6 Requests to hold office denied, however in one case the privilege to hold team captaincy was approved.

In the period from August 1, 1982, to January 15, 1983, the committee has finalized 917 cases and 66 applications for reinstatement.

The files that are submitted to the committee by our associations continue to improve in quality. But we do request that if you hear of a case where money is involved, please make every effort to ascertain the exact amount due. It is most important that the committee know the amount and how the amount was determined.

NATIONAL BOWLING COUNCIL

Officers for the National Bowling Council for 1982-83 are: president, Roger Tessman, ABC executive secretary; vice president, Woody Woodruff, AMF Bowling Products Group assistant group executive; treasurer, Agnes Duffy, WIBC vice president.

Helen Baker, WIBC president, is a member of the executive and advertising committees; Agnes Duffy is chairman of the BVL committee and on the advertising committee. Gladys Banker, WIBC vice president, is serving on the marketing and computer task force committees. Flora Mitchell, WIBC executive secretary-treasurer, is chairman of the collegiate tournament committee and Nancy Tatum, her assistant, serves on the pace of bowling committee. Augie Karcher, WIBC P.R. manager, represents WIBC on the public relations committee.

The National Football League strike resulted in NBC's fastest advertising placement on record. NBC was meeting in Washington, D.C., on September 29, during the second week of the strike. Everyone was in agreement that bowling should take advantage of the situation. Between Thursday afternoon and Friday afternoon, Eisner & Associates, Inc., NBC's advertising firm, developed a network radio program to get the message out to the country to lure NFL football fans into the bowling centers during the strike.

Annual Meeting delegates viewed a triple-screen slide presentation which helped amplify the National Bowling Council report.

Usually such an assignment —the creative development and writing, getting client approval, planning and buying the schedule, getting the "continuity" cleared by the network legal eagles, getting the commercial cast and producing and distributing tapes to networks — takes a minimum of a week.

The Eisner staff did the job in 22 hours: writing the spot overnight, planning the buy overnight and managing to get it confirmed early Friday, performing a veritable miracle by getting the announcer they wanted (one of the hottest voices in New York) to the recording studios in New York by 12 noon, getting CBS, NBC and Mutual to waive the usual 72 hour continuity acceptance requirement and approve the script over the phone in less than one hour, producing the material over the open phone during a hot and heavy two hour session, deliverying the material to the three networks by 4 p.m. Friday on time to air the spot starting early Saturday morning and continuing through Sunday and for up to three weekends of the strike. Over 1,650 radio stations got out the message to over 89 million people that a bowling strike is more fun than a football strike.

The NBC office also sent a bulletin on the program to all bowling centers to let them know the effort to increase bowling lineage and to urge them to place some local advertising. This advertising program should produce some additional bowlers and also indicate that the NBC can take advantage of opportunities to promote our game.

Regular advertising programs are continually upgraded or developed for use by proprietor groups with NBC providing part of the cost under the subsidy program.

Mikey goes for Life cereal. Life goes for bowling. And so will four more Quaker Oats products this year — Cinnamon Life, Corn Bran, Cap'n Crunch and 100% Natural. It'll be one of the biggest bowling booster tie-ins ever. Bowling's story will be featured on 33 million cereal boxes. Packed inside every box will be an every-other-game-free open-play coupon (good for up to three free games).

Quaker is backing the offer with $1.8 million specifically tagged for television spots, $1.4 million in full-color newspaper inserts and displays in thousands of supermarkets nationwide. Product distribution and media exposure will be timed to effect nearly 100 percent coupon redemption by Labor Day, 1983. This should result in new recruits to fill out rosters for the fall season.

Budweiser again spent $1.4 million in the "Join-a-League" fall, 1982, television and radio advertising in support of the Hall of Fame Tournament. The very extensive coverage was viewed or heard in all sections of the country. NBC is working with Budweiser to continue the program for 1983-84.

An Eveready battery program will be held in later summer, 1983, featuring a free game for two, when one purchases Eveready batteries.

The committee continues to work with major firms interested in tieing in with bowling for promotion of their products. Potential firms are Sanka coffee and Quaker State motor oil.

A fall, 1983, mailing was made to 400 creative directors at ad agencies and the top 200 consumer product companies and their agencies. Advertising continues in Ad Age and Ad Week. A new survey is being undertaken to determine the bowling market and its product usage so a new bowling demographic book can be prepared.

It is very evident that the bowling awareness program over the last few years has been most successful. There is an increase in the number of companies interested in tie-in promotion programs and also in the number of firms using bowling in their advertising programs.

Computers are impacting on the bowling scene and will have more applications in the future. A new committee is addressing the future of computers in the overall bowling picture.

The pace of bowling tests were started with the 1982-83 league schedules in 36 bowling centers in 24 states across the country in an effort to add an aura to the game by eliminating long drawn out approaches and/or delayed deliveries. Four different tests are under way: (1) to have bowlers roll two frames in succession, (2) to have bowlers "on deck" when the preceding bowler completes a frame, (3) to have the league complete bowling in a designated time or (4) to have a timing device attached to the pin-setting equipment.

The fourth test did not start with the league schedule. Information from these tests will provide data for the committee to work with in a program to deal with slow bowling.

During August, NBC sent a mailing to all association publicity chairmen and proprietors on the possibility of the National Football League strike, and how to take advantage of it to gain more media attention for bowling. As the strike was called, NBC did receive numerous phone calls on those interested in taking action.

"Tenpin Topics" the NBC syndicated column series for daily newspapers and "On The Ball" columns for weekly newspapers are now exceeding four million in circulation with these series combined. You should be enjoying them in your local bowling publications and newspapers.

National Bowling Week was held for the second year on September 1-7, 1982. Mailings were made to proprietors and league officials in May and again in August on this promotion idea. We thank all of the associations that followed through on this at your local or state level.

The revised format of the Public Relations Seminar was held in Mansfield, Ohio, and coordinated by the Buckeye Women Bowling Writers. Over 40 women attended, many of them publicity chairmen for their organization.

Jim Worth, the championship wheelchair bowler, is conducting a tour for both the BVL Fund and NBC as part of Travelling Ambassadors program. While on tour, Jim will be visiting VA hospitals and giving bowling clinics, in addition to his media tour for NBC.

Articles are planned or have appeared in various publications including one for children in the Pennywhistle Press, which is a fairly new publication released as part of the Gannet chain's Sunday edition newspapers. It reaches over 1.2 million readers and is aimed at children four to 12.

Woman's Day Super Special magazine which reached the newstands in January gave the message to their over seven million readers to "Have a Ball — Bowling." It was a great six page spread that included a "Strike It Strong" section of working out with your bowling ball, featuring professional bowler Leila Wagner. The article included the messages to us that "bowling is characterized as meditation in motion. The tenpin sport helps promote alpha brain waves, the waves that induce a calm and tranquil mental state. In addition, by forcing you to focus all your attention on an inanimate goal—that is, the goal of knocking down the pins — bowling also helps relieve immediate tension and anxiety."

It also contained the information that "bowling will also strengthen calf and thigh muscles, and give your legs a lovely trim and shapely contour. The game strengthens back muscles, tightens the tummy and reduces fatty tissue in the buttocks.

Bowling must be done correctly in order to have the best effect on your body. You must pick up the ball using both hands, every time. Good bowlers have excellent hand/eye coordination. It's an exercise that's perfect for any female of any age, because it can be as easy or as vigorous as you want it to be.

Other articles included one in Sportswomen (a cable television show), Complete Woman, Slim Living (a story on bowling as stress and tension reliever), The Weekend Athlete (a cable health network show), You Asked For It (popular television show) to do a feature on Ronnie Cygnarowitz, a two-year-old bowler in Pittsburgh, Pa., and another television show, Two on the Town, will feature league bowling.

Travelhost magazine, TWA Ambassador/Passages, Ad Age, Dynamic Years and 50 Plus all have articles scheduled and New Age radio is working on a segment of bowling's benefits for senior citizens. This will mean coverage in print, radio and television for children, adults 18-50, 50 plus and the general bowling public.

NBC master clinicians Vesma Grinfelds and Bill Bunetta have held CIP clinics in all sections of the country which are well attended by bowling center personnel. The Certified Instructors program includes learning how to use the Learn-to-Bowl plus materials to teach and convert patrons of the bowling centers into league bowlers.

The NBC Education Service Center provides clinics designed for college and high school coaches, sports instructors and graduate assistants teaching physical education. It is a two day program offering both classroom and on-lane instructions. It provides the necessary materials and ideas for those attending to return to their classes and improve their students' skills.

Approximately 25 "More Lineage, More Profit" seminars were held since December, 1981, and this very popular program for proprietors and their employees will continue to be scheduled. The second workshop, "Recruiting, Interviewing and Selecting Employees" will follow in the various areas of the country.

The education and training committee is developing a lane certification and inspection workshop for local association personnel involved in the certification of lanes and the inspection of honor score conditions. Plans are to cover three basic instructional areas leading to certification as a lane inspector: lane certification procedures, including existing rule and requirements; effective use of appropriate inspection equipment; and correct inspection protocol.

The second instruction area will cover lane maintenance topics —elements of existing lane coatings, cleaning techniques, conditioning procedures, and examination of equipment used for these jobs.

The third major subject is lane inspection for honor scores including using the three existing tests; the use of lane analyzing tools, proper inspection reporting and training in proper communication techniques. The initial phase of training after the program is developed will be in-depth training of 60 to 75 instructors drawn from all segments of the game who will then conduct these workshops for local association officials, proprietors and other interested parties.

The Ninth Annual Collegiate Bowling Championships will be held in St. Louis, Mo., at Fair Lanes May 4-7, 1983. Twenty-four of the nation's top collegiate bowling teams will represent all sections of the country.

The Athletic Institute and the NBC have just completed the production of a four-part "Basic Bowling" film series. The films will be marketed by AI, the world's largest producer of sports educational material, to over 250,000 junior and senior high schools and colleges nationwide and in 57 foreign countries.

The National Bowling Council, with the combined efforts of all integers of bowling, continually works to keep bowling before the public. Advertising and promotion as well as education and research are necessary all the time to keep bowling the number one participant sport. The National Bowling Council, formed in 1942 to unite all integers of the sport, has a proud record and will strive for greater heights as the educational and promotional arm of bowling.

PACE OF BOWLING

The following report on the Pace of Bowling test program was presented to the delegates with the NBC report.

At the WIBC Annual Meeting in St. Louis, Mo., delegates approved a resolution to permit modification or variances in existing WIBC rules for leagues participating in a test program aimed at finding ways to improve the pace of bowling.

Without setting an unrealistic time frame that would detract from the enjoyment and sociability of normal league play, four innovative formats were developed. These formats were to be tested in 36 bowling centers from nine designated regions throughout the country by leagues volunteering to participate for one round of their 1982-83 schedule.

The four test formats were:

Two Frame Format — The members of the contesting teams successively and in regular order bowled two frames on one lane, and for the next two frames alternated and used the other lane, so alternating each two frames until six frames were bowled on the starting lane and four on the alternate lane, completing the game.

On Deck Player — This test required the player next in line to bowl to be in a designated "on deck player area" before the preceding player was leaving the approach area after delivering his or her last ball in the frame. Any player not in this area received a zero for that frame.

Designated Time Test — A specified time period equivalent to 2½ hours for five-member teams, 2 hours for four-member teams, or 1½ hours for three-member teams was established, and any team not completing all scheduled games stopped bowling. The players not finished received 1/10th of the league's absentee score for those frames not completed.

Improving the pace of bowling in league play was the goal of a four-pronged test program during the season.

Timing Device — This concept involved the use of a timing device which gives a signal if the specified time period elapses before a player delivers his or her first ball. A zero was recorded for that frame as a penalty for not complying.

Due to a delay experienced by Brunswick and AMF in preparing the timing devices, responses from leagues participating in test No. 4 are still being compiled. However, final results for tests, 1, 2 and 3 have been analyzed and evaluated from 340 monitor reports and 2,185 bowler opinion forms submitted for 51 participating leagues.

The on deck format (test No. 2) proved to be the fastest and showed the greatest saving of time. A sampling of participants responding to the bowler opinion questionnaire for the on deck test showed that 73 percent found the format to be equally or more enjoyable and 87 percent indicated the format was as easy or easier than the traditional league play format.

Since the on deck format proved to be the most acceptable and preferred of the three tests for which results have been compiled, testing of the two-frame and designated time formats has been discontinued. It was proposed, however, that further tests be conducted using the on deck format in full leagues during the 1982-83 summer and 1983-84 winter seasons.

In order to allow for further testing and for continued efforts to be made in arriving at a satisfactory solution to the slow bowling problem, we are presenting the following resolution:

Whereas, A resolution was adopted by the delegates in convention in St. Louis, Mo., on April 20, 1982, authorizing a committee to test various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1982-83 season and to permit modification or variances in existing WIBC rules for leagues participating in the test program; and

Whereas, The need for in-depth testing of certain formats is deemed to be necessary; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That a committee currently working under the auspices of the National Bowling Council be authorized to continued testing various procedures to improve the pace of bowling in sanctioned leagues during the 1983-84 season and to permit modification or variances in existing WIBC rules for leagues participating in the test program.

BVL FUND

Another record in contributions of $863,245.28 was raised in the 1981-82 season by America's bowlers. During a time when many charitable organizations have experienced difficulty in reaching their goals, bowlers have come through with a seven percent increase over the previous season. This puts us over the million mark in total contributions since the start of the program.

Syracuse, N.Y., with a combined WIBC, ABC and community involvement program earned the number one honor with $21,410.90. Syracuse held second spot last year.

Ventura County, Calif., moved up to second place with a total of $20,104.43 followd by Citrus Belt, Calif., with $17,119.75. This was a move up of one position for each area. Phoenix, Ariz., dropped from first place to fourth but with a still outstanding amount of $17,000.

Orange County, Calif., doubled their funds to move into fifth with $16,185. Last year they held 14th place. Another big move from 15th to eighth place was Detroit, Mich., with $10,505. The following listing gives position on total contribution, WIBC membership and the average per member raised.

The number of associations to make the honor roll for contribution of $1,000 or over increased to 195 from 169 the previous season.

Vidalia, Ga., has to be singled out for very special honors. With a membership of only 104, they contributed $1,050 — $10.10 per member. Our hats are off to them and we need to learn their key to success.

California was again the front runner on contributions on a state level with a new record of $208,388.61 — the first time any state has topped the $200,000 figure.

New York continued to hold second place, raising $49,117.07, but there were some changes among the same top ten with (3) Georgia — $46,918, (4) Texas — $44,370.03, (5) Indiana — $38,012.13, (6) Tennessee, (7) Michigan, (8) Ohio — $28,333.21, (9) Arizona — $25,038.76 and (10) Oregon —$22,915.12.

BVL contributions exceeding the amount of membership dues indicates that the bowlers continue to be concerned for the hospitalized veterans and the local and state support of this program is outstanding. All contributions are needed and appreciated but these special efforts make the difference and help set a new record each year.

The BVL Fund continues to receive the special contributions to honor or memorialize friends and many donations are received in this special category. Special acknowledgement cards are sent to the family of the deceased or honored individual and to the person or group making the gift.

WIBC Pioneer 20 Year Club, 500 bowling clubs, National 600 Bowling Club, state and local club groups as well as other integers of bowling continue to support the BVL Fund. AMF Incorporated and Brunswick Corporation together with ABC local association personnel check bowling facilities and equipment in the veteran medical centers when requests are received for repairs or replacements.

Televisions continue to top the list of requested items from the hospitals and 749 color sets were distributed since our last report. The Sporting News, Bowling and The Woman Bowler magazines are provided by the fund. Funds are provided the hospitals for recreational items that include: musical instruments, ping pong and pool tables, games, funds for sporting events and special outings, many requests for money for bowling programs, canteen coupon books, television video equipment, large print and talking books, library supplies, tape recorders, radios, all types of sporting equipment, washers and dryers, and even irons and ironing boards. The list is almost endless, but the need is there and your continuing support makes it possible to supply the items.

The BVL Fund again contributed, for the 33rd year, $25,000 to the Blinded Veterans Association at their annual convention. The donation will allow them to continue three major programs: (1) a field service program, which sends BVA employees across the United States to counsel and motivate blinded veterans, (2) an outreach employment program, which attempts to join unemployed blinded veterans and prospective employers and (3) an information program which is sent to over 16,000 veterans throughout the country.

Nelson (Bo) Burton, Jr., continues as the BVL Honorary Chairman with visits to hospitals and public relations work for the program. We remind you that posters and other aids are available from the BVL office, 1919 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006, telephone (202) 659-9070. These are provided at no cost to assist with your local fund drives.

The BVL/VA Bowling Tournament is once again underway and some of you have been contacted and are helping run the tournaments in your area. This assistance is of great benefit to the hospitals and also gives your members the opportunity to become involved with veterans.

Local and state associations are contacted when Base Line or Special Fund checks are to be distributed in your area so you can participate in the presentations. This is a great opportunity to obtain some good publicity for the BVL and bowling. If you have a chance to take part in these presentations, be sure to do so if at all possible.

What a great group of workers you all are! Every dollar is needed, every dollar is appreciated, every dollar will be put to the best possible use — keep the dollars coming. It is impossible to thank each contributor personally but the veterans know that the bowlers are not forgetting them, that the bowlers care, that the bowlers will take the time to do the job. The entire bowling family and their friends and neighbors band together in our BVL program that started in 1942. What a success story it continues to be and it starts with you so we will say thanks again to you and ask you to extend it back home.

The distinctive form of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum gradually took shape in downtown St. Louis, Mo.

HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

The annual meeting of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum was held in St. Louis, Mo., July 8, 1982. Board members present were: from WIBC, Helen Baker, Gladys Banker, Alberta E. Crowe, Agnes Duffy and Mitzi Herold; from ABC, H. Wesley Bogle, Maurice J. Hayes, Lowell Rothschild, Edward W. Sweeney, Roger Tessman; from BPAA, Leo Grawey, Ernest Miller, Nicholas Mormando, Lester Unnerstall; from Brunswick, Milton Rudo; from AMF, W. W. Woodruff; from PBA, Joe Antenora.

Carl Hindel from BPAA had a conflicting meeting and was unable to attend. Also present were Flora Mitchell of WIBC, NBHF/M treasurer, and Al Matzelle and Bruce Pluckhahn from staff.

Elected to serve as officers for the 1982-83 year were: president, Milton Rudo; vice president, Nicholas Mormando; secretary, Roger Tessman; treasurer, Flora Mitchell.

Many of you were fortunate enough to have attended the ground breaking ceremonies for the building when we were in St. Louis for our WIBC Annual Meeting last year. If you didn't attend those ceremonies you must have read about them because they received a tremendous amount of coverage in bowling papers through the country and on every one of the St. Louis television channels. In fact, the St. Louis city officials said they had never seen a ground breaking that was as well attended and as colorful — all thanks to our many delegates and their beautiful and varied uniforms!

There will be another meeting of the NBHF/M Board of Directors in St Louis in March and we will be able to give you an updated oral report in Las Vegas on the progress of the building and the projected opening.

In May we had the exciting finals of the NBHF/M-Budweiser Natural Light Tournament in St. Louis with Shirley Garms, WIBC Hall of Famer, and her partner John Kiser winning the first place prize of $10,000. The building fund was enriched by approximately $200,000 as a result of that tournament and it is hoped that that figure will be even larger for the 1983 tournament.

The NBHF/M Board of Directors is extremely pleased that Budweiser is again sponsoring the tournament for the second year and certainly hope all of you participated when the qualifying was held in your bowling center.

The following statement appears in the promotion material, "Budweiser and Budweiser Light are committed and enthusiastic about bowling and know . . . with your help . . . the big winner of this season will be bowling."

All bowlers should be particularly pleased with this evidence of Budweiser's affiliation with bowling and its support of our Hall of Fame and Museum project and should reciprocate by not only entering the tournament but actively promoting it.

At the WIBC State Leaders Workshop this past July, I issued a challenge to our leaders to redouble their efforts and double their past contributions and many of you have already responded to that challenge . . . for which we thank you. If we can raise funds at an even better rate than we have in the past, we might be able to get this Hall of Fame and Museum built without having to borrow any money. Wouldn't that be a wonderful tribute to the dedication and hard work of our bowlers!

The Living Tributes as well as the contributions In Memoriam seem to be extremely popular and that is understandable. Wouldn't you like to have a contribution made in your name recognizing your interest in the sport or your untiring efforts in behalf of the game?

And, speaking of contributions, Coca Cola USA has pledged $300,000 and varying amounts have been contributed by many of the manufacturers of bowling emblems, jewelry and other suppliers and people connected with the game. The fund raising goes on . . . and on . . . and on with your help.

Remember the various categories for contributions: Founder, $1,000; Builder, $300; and Patron, $150.

Or maybe you know someone who would like to be a Friend of the Museum by contributing or pledging $5,000, or a Sponsor by $10,000. All gifts are deductible and there are pledge cards available here.

Again, thank you for all your help and please keep those cards and pledges coming.

INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

This has been a year of planning for the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs World Championships to be held in Caracas, Venezuela, October 21-31, 1983, and the Pan American Games, which will also be held in Caracas, Venezuela, August 6-13, 1983. Bowling will be a demonstration sport in the Pan American Games for the first time.

Dr. Alberto Fedder Vargas, Colombia, assumed presidency of FIQ American Zone upon the resignation of Ken Hurley. Helen Baker was appointed alternate director in the Presidium of the American Zone by the new president. She will be one of four alternate directors.

Twelve WIBC bowlers have already qualified for the Team Trials to be held July 13-16, 1983, at Red Carpet South Bowling Lanes, Milwaukee, Wis., with the top all events totals, as non-professionals, in the St. Louis, Mo., WIBC Tournament and collegiate qualifiers as listed. (See chart next page.)

Melisa Day of Ball State University in Muncie, Ind., swept all three events in the ACU-I finals in St. Louis.

Patty Bowie of Arizona State University in Glendale, Ariz., was the top qualifier at the 1982 National Collegiate Bowling Championships.

Because the Las Vegas tournament will not end until July 1, it was necessary to set a cut-off date of June 10 to determine the high ten non-professionals eligible to compete in the Team Trials in July. The collegiate events will be completed in time for the two ladies to make the trip to Milwaukee this year.

Twenty-four men from the ABC Tournaments and men's collegiate play the same two years will also compete in the trials. The top six women and top six men in the trials will represent the United States under WIBC/ABC sponsorship in the 10th World Bowling Championships of the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs in Caracas, Venezuela.

The Pan American Games, under the direction of the International Olympic Committee, will be held in Caracas,Venezuela, in August, 1983. Bowling will be a demonstration sport in these Pan American Games — it will be a first for bowling. Bowling has been included in the Asian Games and the European Games.

WIBC/ABC will represent the United States in the competition and the FIQ rule on amateur standing for eligibility will be in effect. All countries in the Western Hemisphere that bowl tenpin will be invited whether or not they are members of the FIQ.

Each country participating will send a team of two men and two women. The athletes and coaches will be housed in the Olympic Village. Winners in each event will receive Pan Am gold, silver and bronze medals. All competitors will be subject to drug tests (urine and blood tests) and these tests will be administered by the Olympic Committee and will be done by spot checks.

Men and women will be scheduled to practice together and the bowling events will be: one male doubles pair per country; one female doubles pair per country; mixed teams of four; singles; and individual round-robin match play for top sixteen male and top sixteen female bowlers. The Venezuelan Bowling Association will be host for the tournament.

The 20th Annual Lee Evans Bowling Tournament of the Americas was held in Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Jean Hammond of Laurens, S.C., represented WIBC and earned a gold in the mixed doubles when she teamed with ABC bowler Rich Wonders of Racine, Wis. They had a 2487 six-game total.

Joanne Walker and Joyce Campbell, WIBC members from Canada, finished one and two in women's singles and teamed with Ron Sarronino and Earl Demmery to win the gold medal in the mixed foursome event. Jean Hammond and Carol Lilly of De land, Fla., joined ABC's Rich Wonders and Bruce Bohm for third. Rich Wonders also won the men's singles and all events for the United States.

The 1983 Tournament of the Americas will be held August 14-20.

Jeanette Baker of Australia and Arne Stroem of Norway, won the 1982 AMF Bowling World Cup in Schevingen, Holland, November 22-28. The United States representatives Melisa Day and Myrl Serra of Arizona State finished 20th and 16th, respectively.

World Games II is now scheduled to be held in England in 1985. It appears that adequate funding will allow the World Games to continue as another international sporting event.

Mrs. Carol Miller of Waukesha, Wis., has been selected as the WIBC coach for 1983 and will accompany WIBC's entrants to the Pan American Games and the FIQ World Championships.

YABA

The Young American Bowling Alliance celebrated its Birth Day on August 1, 1982, with appropriate festivities at bowling headquarters in Greendale, Wis., and across the country. At mid-season the statistics are incomplete, but we want to report our progress and plans to the delegation.

Under the YABA banner we have separate, yet related operations soon to be relocated in new expanded quarters at bowling headquarters.

The Youth Division serves those in the under 22-years-of-age group. This group represents the bulk of the membership.

The Collegiate Division is concerned with the welfare of those members enrolled in institutions of higher learning. It serves as a governing body for intercollegiate competition and an agency to service campus bowling programs.

YABA is charged with the development and administration of a national youth bowling tournament.

The Young American Bowling Alliance is a Wisconsin non-profit corporation managed by a 15-member board of directors composed of five directors each appointed by ABC, BPAA and WIBC. Directors are appointed for staggered two-year terms. Three officers and an executive committee are elected for one-year terms.

The following are serving for the 1982-83 season: from ABC; William DeHaven, Kettering, Ohio, William Hall, Chicago, Ill., Ted Melonis, Omaha, Neb., Roger Tessman, Greendale, Wis., C. Dayle Vannoy, Lubbock, Texas.

From BPAA; James Brooks, Houston, Texas, Donald Hillman, Fremont, Calif., Don Lowry, Kokomo, Ind., Jon Poelking, Dayton, Ohio, Robert Smoltz, Dearborn Heights, Mich.

From WIBC; Helen Baker, Cocoa Beach, Fla., Gladys Banker, Charles Town, W. Va., Joyce Deitch, Las Vegas, Nev., Elaine Hagin, Castro Valley, Calif., Anne Simone, Sunderland, Mass.

President is Don Lowry, BPAA. Vice President is Helen Baker, WIBC. Secretary-Treasurer is Ted Melonis, ABC. The Executive Committee consists of Helen Baker, WIBC, chairman; Donald Hillman, BPAA; and C. Dayle Vannoy, ABC.

The programs developed by seven YABA committees, and approved by the board, are administered by the staff, headed by YABA Executive Director Charles F. Hall.

Response to the YABA programs has been positive. The kids, coaches and parents love the awards . . . and the bantams are having a ball. Considering the number of meetings to be held, bylaws to be adopted and forms to be completed, we are very pleased with what has been accomplished in a few short months. The entire home office staff is to be commended and congratulated for a smooth transition, and the launching of YABA. We have an organization of which we can be proud, and whose merits can be extolled at every meeting we attend.

During the period of transition, emphasis was on the youth division and the collegians continued to be viewed as ABC and WIBC members. Now, collegiate bowlers are members of the YABA. However, two points should be clarified regarding their status.

A collegiate bowler may still hold a WIBC card even while participating in collegiate leagues and tournaments. When she joins a WIBC league she shows her YABA card, pays state and local dues, and is issued a WIBC card. She keeps both cards.

YABA Collegiate Division averages are valid for use in WIBC competition. However, it is often difficult to verify these averages because they are seldom published in association average books. Associations can help by encouraging campus representatives to submit averages for the association to include.

Eligibility rules for the National Collegiate Bowling Championships have been changed to become effective with the 1983-84 season. Competitors must maintain a 2.0 grade average, be enrolled in ten units and have successfully completed ten units in the previous term of enrollment (freshmen are exempted from the last provision). St. Louis, Mo., is the host for the 1983 event, which will be held May 5-7. The 1984 site will be announced at that time.

Collegiate membership showed a decline for the first time in several years. There were 18,703 members in the 1981-82 season as compared with 19,310 during 1980-81. One optimistic note is the fact that female membership showed a slight increase in spite of the overall decrease.

The spotlight has been on intercollegiate activity since its inception. This is not surprising, and conforms to publicity which both ABC and WIBC activities receive. It is apparent, however, that while publicity of intercollegiate matches enhances the image, significant membership growth can only be achieved through campus leagues. The increase of campus bowling programs will be a primary goal in the future.

The Coca-Cola National Junior Bowling Championships is a new tournament. It is designed to involve our members from the league level, through regional and state qualifying, to the national finals, which will be held July 21-25, in Washington, D.C. While similar tournaments have been held in the nation's capital for many years, the 1983 event is being conducted by the YABA for its members, with the financial support of Coca-Cola.

Following approval by the board of directors, information for the 1984 event will be released. Criteria for hosting the tournament is being publicized, as well as being sent directly to areas we believe meet the requirements. Invitations will be accepted, and the site for the 1984 finals will be anncunced at the time of this year's tournament.

We urge you to give your support at the local and state levels to ensure that all youth bowlers are aware of the opportunity to earn national recognition and scholarships.

Early reports indicate that current season membership will fall short of our projections. We are hoping that some of this may be a delay in sanctioning rather than a decline in participation. An upswing in summer league sanctioning would brighten the picture.

A survey by the National Federation of State High School Associations reflects a drop of 2.7 percent and 2.3 percent in high school sports participation by boys and girls respectively during the 1981-82 term. Youth Sports organizations are reporting similar trends.

We are constantly reminded of the impact of the economy on every aspect of our lives. This is a fact which cannot be ignored. However, we cannot permit ourselves to adopt it as an excuse every time membership decline is mentioned. The National Bowling Council supplies periodic reports on the number of casual bowlers . . . we are aware of the unsanctioned leagues. We are stretching the facts considerably to blame the economy for the failure of these potential members to find their way into the bowling family.

The National Bowling Council has plans underway to place specific emphasis on the youth market. The YABA board and staff have promotion at the top of their priority list. What can you do? Make the promotion of youth bowling part of your overall membership promotion campaign. After you have recruited the parents . . . sign up their kids. When plans for your next promotion are being considered with the bowling centers and the ABC organization, include the YABA leadership, too.

Remember, not only do your bowlers have children, our bowlers have parents.

As membership organizations, our goals are the same — more members, enjoying the benefits of sanctioned competition. The roads to those goals will be shorter if we travel them together.

SENIOR

Excitement . . . enthusiasm . . . wonder . . . winners . . . that's what last year was filled with for seniors who had the good fortune to bowl in the "first" WIBC National Seniors Championships in Baltimore, Md.

The old cliche, "gone but not forgotten," is certainly true as words of praise are still ringing loud and clear from all who participated in the national event. The appreciation expressed by each senior left no doubt in anyone's mind that the time and effort devoted to the senior program were most worthwhile.

For some, it was the first time to bowl in a state senior tournament; a first to be a state champion; the first time to participate in a national event; and for some, the first time to ever be a national champion. It wasn't a large tournament in numbers but in every other way, it was a tremendous success and wonderful memories linger on.

The second annual WIBC National Senior Championships will be held May 14-15, in Niagara Falls, N.Y. We're extremely pleased to have 106 participants representing a total of 35 states and one province. This is an increase of 63 bowlers and 19 states over the previous year. It is evident that the increase in the 1983 senior tournament is due to your continued interest and hard work in the senior program.

Many states have hosted their second annual seniors event and have reported increases in the number of participants, who had more fun than they could have dreamed possible. Other states are hosting their very first senior tournament — finding it to be as others indicated — fun, challenging, interesting and most rewarding.

Our dream would be to have every state and province represented in the 1984 WIBC National Senior Championships. We realize in order to generate interest at the national level, each state must do its part in conducting a statewide seniors championship tournament. As you know, this requires cooperation at the local level. What better way to create interest and promote your state seniors tournament than by conducting a tournament at the local level for your seniors. The number of tournaments being conducted at the local level for senior bowlers is increasing each year. Why not get on the band wagon and join the parade. You may be pleasantly surprised by the response you get.

If you are planning on hosting your first local senior tournament and need assistance, suggestions are available from headquarters upon request. Even if you have been hosting a local senior tournament for several years, you might find that the suggestions would help make your tournament bigger and better.

The senior program has received a tremendous amount of good publicity, contributing a great deal to its growth. One area deserving credit is through personal contact. Personal contact continues to be one of the most important ways to increase membership growth, not only at the league, local, state and national levels, but in tournament participation. Much of our senior growth in tournament play has come from the participants themselves. They derive so much pleasure from participating, they spread the word to others.

Another area deserving a great deal of credit is the news media. We'd particularly like to thank the bowling writers for the fine job they continue to do in promoting our sport and the special recognition that is given to seniors, who are so deserving. Your articles reflect the wonderful attitude seniors have. As one senior stated after missing her spare, "This is a game where some days you do, some days you don't, and I can't be in the garden all the time." How true the statement is for all of us.

To sum it up from the seniors' point of view — it's fun, good exercise, good fellowship and staying in step with bowling keeps one young.

At the close of the 1981-82 season, the WIBC senior program reflected the increases shown in the table.

The awards show a significant increase. Thanks to the change in legislation, we are not only giving more awards, but it is possible for all seniors in senior leagues to earn these awards.

We're pleased to announce that a senior championship emblem with class chevrons has been designed for local and state tournaments and is available upon request at a minimal cost to associations.

The committee is continuing to study the senior program and any suggestions you may have on how we can improve it will be most welcome.

Our committee owes a debt of gratitude to the staff and President Helen Baker for all of their assistance, and to all of you for your hard work, dedication and continued loyalty. Keep up the good work!

SITE INSPECTION

As our organization and its activities grow in size and stature, our needs grow as well. And the way we do things must change to meet those needs. We have several new policies to announce to you regarding invitations to host the WIBC Annual Meeting and Championship Tournament.

The local association should have at least 5,000 members, and through experience we find that the host city for our annual championship tournament must offer certain essential facilities.

First, the size of our championship tournament mandates that the city must have one center with at least 60 lanes or two bowling centers, one with at least 32 lanes and the other with 48 lanes, or more. We cannot adequately accommodate our membership with anything less, and it would be preferable to have even larger facilities if at all possible.

Secondly, this undertaking for a local association carries with it the necessity for up-front money to be used for appropriate promotion of this major event. This need can impose a real hardship on the local association. Its members must either find an appropriate source of underwriting or some other way to raise the dollars that are necessary to implement the kind of outreach program so important to the success of the event.

It has been decided that the city government or the convention bureau of the host city will be required to contribute financially to assist both the local association and WIBC with promoting the Championship Tournament and staging our annual convention.

Additionally, since we bring approximately 15 million new dollars into our host city as well as major media coverage over an extended period, it is the opinion of the Board that the assistance we are asking is more than justified. We want you to know that this is not an uncommon practice and has been done for many years by other organizations and large conventions whose business is of vital importance to the economic welfare of cities with large convention facilities.

And finally, the convention facilities that we require must be complimentary, that is, provided at no cost by the host city's government or convention bureau.

This commitment must include: an auditorium large enough to comfortably handle 4,000 persons; complete room setups with chairs, risers and microphones; a stage with tables, chairs, podium, skirted head tables; complete audio visual facilities; security; staffed first aid rooms; delegate registration area with tables and chairs; tellers room with several long tables; three additional meeting rooms or areas for board, sergeant-at-arms and storage.

Again, historically, complimentary facilities are customary in many cases. The host city is receiving a great deal in return and is often pleased to offer the necessary physical facilities without charge.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Arnold Richard Kelly of Indian Springs Baptist Church, Indian Springs, Nev. Everyone joined in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and in singing the National Anthem.

In a break from tradition, President Baker asked that all first-time delegates stand. She then commented on the enormity of the 1983 WIBC Championship Tournament.

Richard Bryan, governor of Nevada, welcomed the delegates and congratulated them on the record-breaking WIBC Championship Tournament.

Mrs. Thalia Dondero, chairman of the Clark County (Nev.) board of commissioners, recited the official proclamation from Clark County, welcoming the delegates to the county.

Mrs. Agnes Duffy, Richmond, Calif., WIBC vice president, read the rules governing the Annual Meeting approved by the WIBC Board of Directors. They were accepted as read.

Mrs. Gerry Perry, Las Vegas Women's Bowling Association president, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the local association. She presented President Baker with a check for $89.60, as a donation to the BVL Fund, from proceeds of a contest to guess the total WIBC tournament entry.

Las Vegas Mayor Bill Briare officially welcomed the delegates to the host city. He then presented President Baker with the key to the city, saying, "For the time being we are the bowling capital of the world, and we are sure grateful for that."

Mrs. Joan Johnson, Nevada WBA president, told the delegates: "Whether you spend all of your time in Las Vegas or visit some of the other areas of the state, I hope when you leave to return home, you will be able to say Las Vegas and Nevada really was the place to be in '83."

President Baker introduced the WIBC Board of Directors, life member, executive secretary-treasurer and assistant secretary-treasurer.

Roger Tessman, American Bowling Congress executive secretary-treasurer, spoke on the importance of unity within the bowling family, saying, "Much of ABC's involvement touches the lives of our male bowlers, but we are committed to a total bowling family concept and certainly that involves you ladies and the millions of WIBC members." Tessman outlined NBC's program to train ABC and WIBC lane inspectors as an example of this unity and went on to say that ABC is doing much in the education field. Tessman urged "The use of outside agencies and organizations to further our efforts in maintaining the high standards of bowling as a competitive sport as well as a recreational activity."

President Baker introduced Lowell Rothschild, Tucson, Ariz., and Matthew R. Bennie, Forest Heights, Md., ABC past presidents.

Charles Hall, Young American Bowling Alliance executive director, reported that after only 10 months of operation, the new "baby" in the bowling family is well and growing. "While there were many that were pessimistic concerning the unification program, success has been achieved," Hall said.

President Baker then introduced the Southern Nevada YABA president, Mrs. Joyce Deitch, and Mrs. Helen Robinson, Southern Nevada YABA secretary. Mr. William C. Ross, assistant to the field sales manager of the syrup division of Coca-Cola USA was also introduced.

Tessman reviewed national media attention devoted to bowling during the past year and summarized NBC public relations activities. He mentioned joint promotions developed through NBC's marketing efforts with the Quaker Oats Company and Eveready batteries.

Tessman said, "Through all of the NBC programs and marketing, public relations, advertising and education and training, we are working to reach our goal to foster greater organized and casual participation in our sport and to promote a positive awareness of our game through the combined efforts of all of us."

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
July 31, 1983 and 1982

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation — Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc. (WIBC), is a nonprofit organization, organized in 1916 and incorporated in 1919 under the statutes of the State of Illinois. It engages in the promotion and supervision of the game of American tenpins for women. The accounts of WIBC are maintained on the accrual basis.

Income taxes — WIBC is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code in accordance with an exemption letter dated March 28, 1972.

Materials and supplies inventory — Materials and supplies inventory is valued at the lower of cost, on the first-in, first-out basis, or market.

Depreciation — All fixed assets are depreciated over their useful lives using the straight-line method.

	Years
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	10
Vehicles	4

Designated funds — Annually, WIBC allocates a portion of its fund balance for various designated purposes.

Subscription revenue — Membership dues in the amount of $1.50 for each league sanctioned by WIBC are allocated to subscription revenue of "The Woman Bowler" magazine.

Retirement plan — WIBC has a qualified noncontributory retirement plan which covers all eligible full-time employees. Total pension expense was $134,166 and $122,153 for 1983 and 1982, respectively, which includes amortization of past service costs. WIBC makes annual contributions to the plan equal to the amount accrued for pension expense. WIBC elected the lump sum method of funding the initial past service liability of $219,634 when the plan was amended in 1975 and is amortizing the amount over ten years.

A comparison of accumulated plan benefits and plan net assets is presented below.

	August 1, 1982	August 1, 1981
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits:

The weighted average assumed rate of return used in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits was 6.5 percent.

2. Notes receivable

WIBC has agreed to loan Young American Bowling Alliance (YABA) up to $125,000 on an interest free basis, contingent upon matching funds being made available from American Bowling Congress (ABC) and Bowling Proprietors Association of America (BPAA). At July 31, 1983, WIBC has advanced YABA $100,000, with payment due August 1, 1984.

3. Investment in Bowlers' Building Corporation

BBC is a nonprofit corporation which owns, operates, and maintains the building presently being leased on a year-to-year basis to WIBC and ABC. Revenue and expenses therefrom are shared equally by the lessees. The investment as of July 31, 1983 and 1982, represents WIBC's 50 percent equity in BBC's net assets. WIBC's share of BBC's operating expenses is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statements.

Summarized financial position and results of operations of BBC from the report of other independent auditors are as follows:

BBC's condensed financial position	July 31, 1983	July 31, 1982
Net property, buildings, and equipment	$4,211,954	$3,978,115

4. Commitments and contingent liabilities

WIBC has authorized a contribution of $250,000 to National Bowling Council for fiscal 1984, the same amount paid for the years ended July 31, 1983 and 1982, respectively. The 1984 payment is contingent upon the authorization of like contributions from ABC, BPAA, AMF, Inc., and Brunswick Corp.

Bowling Redevelopment Corporation, a fully owned subsidiary of National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc. (NBHF/M), has a $2.5 million line of credit with Centerre Bank of St. Louis in connection with NBHF/M's construction of a new museum in that City. WIBC and ABC have agreed to guarantee any borrowings under this line ($354,021 at July 31, 1983). WIBC and ABC have also agreed to guarantee the continued operation of the new museum through 1994.

The Board of Directors
Women's International Bowling
Congress, Inc.

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc. (WIBC), at July 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statements of revenue, expenses, and fund balances, and changes in financial position for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The financial statements of Bowlers' Building Corporation (BBC), an unconsolidated subsidiary in which WIBC has a 50 percent interest, have been examined by other independent auditors; insofar as our opinion on the financial statements relates to data included for BBC, it is based solely on their report. In the financial statements, WIBC's investment in BBC represents 23 percent and 21 percent of total assets at July 31, 1983 and 1982, respectively.

In our opinion, based upon our examinations and the report of the other independent auditors, the statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of Women's International Bowling Congress, Inc., at July 31, 1983 and 1982, and the results of operations and changes in financial position for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis during the period.
